Report of the Nominating Committee:

Board and Friends in the membership:

In late December 2006, Kevin Hubbard, then chairman of the nominating committee, asked if I would be the fourth member of the nominating committee for 2007. I agreed to this position.

On Sunday, January 9, 2007, along with Rebecca McKnight, representing the board, and Edith Tallman, representing the church membership, Kevin Hubbard, Craig Strain and myself met to discuss qualifications for candidacy, review the membership list and determine who might be interested in serving on the board of Trustees in 2007. Members who had expressed an interest are Nancy Abish, Shannan Denison and Pat Pearson. Several other members were mentioned as possible candidates to include Tom Hale. The qualifications listed below can be found in section, 5.04, subsection (a), of the bylaws.

The Board Nominee must:

- Be a member of Unity Church of Practical Christianity for a minimum of one year.
- Have a desire for Board Service.
- Endeavor to live Christ Principles as taught by Unity.
- Is a sincere and continuing student of Unity, conversant with its teachings
- Has demonstrated leadership abilities.

The Nominating Committee would like to express its gratitude to this year's nominees for their willingness to share their time, give of their talents and impart their wisdom to this ministry of Unity Church of Practical Christianity. We appreciate and bless each one of you.

The Nominating Committee for 2007 presents the following candidates for consideration of Board Service: Nancy Abish, Shannan Denison, Pat Pearson and Tom Hale.

Respectfully Submitted,
Marcia K. Fellow
2007 Nominating Committee Chair
Unity Church of Practical Christianity
