

Shannan Dennison

My name is Shannan Denison and I am running for the board of trustees for our AWESOME Unity Church of Practical Christianity! My husband, Kevin Hubbard, and I have faithfully attended since Spring of 2003. As parents we are very committed and grateful to be giving our children, Kate (8), Olivia (7) and Jude (3), the foundations of Unity principles through the dedicated teachings of the youth ministry.

I am passionate about the success of our church and its members and feel committed to serving by using my time and talent in any way I can. I currently work with the Youth ministry and in the past have served on the marketing team, angel network, church directory committee and prosperity team. Our quest here is a spiritual one and I will strive to remember the Christ within each of us when it has been momentarily forgotten.

I am a graduate of GVSU with a B.A. in psychology. I chose a career as a financial advisor with Ameriprise Financial and continue to be deeply satisfied and rewarded by how I am able to help people with the very important aspects of their financial well being. I am very grateful for a growing practice that began nearly 6 years ago!

I've served on the board of the Alliance of Women Entrepreneurs in the roles of Programs, Publicity and Fund Development/Special Events. Other organizations I've volunteered my time for include Michigan Community Blood, WGVU, GROW and the Women's Resource Center.

I am excited and grateful for this opportunity to serve on the board of Unity Church of Practical Christianity and look forward to this time of new beginnings for our church!
